Resumption of Prosperity Is Evidenced, and Wall Street Traders Are in Cheerful Mood

GOOD DAY IN NEW YORK STOCKS SATURDAY BRINGS WITH RAILS TAKING LEAD. PROFIT-TAKING EARLY.

NEW YORK, May 8.-There was TODAY'S PRICES ON market at the immediate opening no questioning the temper of the nor for that matter during the entire session. Wall Street is in a happy frame session. Wall Street is in a happy frame of mind. It evidently does not believe Co., bankers and brokers, Hibbs Building. that the return of prosperity has been members New York Stock Exchange, Wash-ington Stock Exchange, and Chicago Board mercantile agencies are in every way confirmatory of the good reports that have reached the speculators. The Street now expects that the general public, after holding off so long, will come nibbling around after stocks at these prices, and they will be encouraged by a little higher range and then fed stocks.

That these processes were the speculators that the general public, after holding off so long, will come nibbling around after stocks at these prices, and they will be encouraged by a little higher range and then fed stocks.

That there were the speculators that the general public, after holding off so long, will consider the speculators.

Inclement weather caused the post-ponement of many of the sand lot games about the city yesterday, neither the Departmental nor the Marquette

Leagues playing as per schedule. Out on the Sunday School League grounds, at Thirteenth and D streets sortheast, the Hamline team came into sobular favor by the decisive manner in which it trounced the St. Paul aggre gation. A new member of the league's roster, the Hamline team, came to the regular diamond all unheralded, but the regular diamond all unheralded, but the way in which it has landed the only two games it has played has made all hands sit up, and especially those who were doping out a fight between Ninth and Bethany for the final honors.

Brentwood came to its own yesterday and trounced the much-touted Brookland aggregation by 5 to 3. The game went but six innings, but during those bessions the winners had very little difficulty in suppressing any dangerous attempts of their opponents to squeeze by them.

LOCAL SHARES IN GOOD DEMAND MERGY'S GOOD EARNINGS. GAS AGAIN HIGHER.

There was a light attendance of members on 'Change, but the volume of business was excellent. There was also a distinctly better tone and a disposition to advance prices on many securities, notably on Traction 5's, Gas Shares, Mergenthaler, and Lanston.

The March earnings of Mergenthaler were nearly $200,000 net, with $1,350,000 net for the first six months of the fiscal year. Furing March the Mergenthaler people put out ninety-one machines, and the orders received indicated a better business in Atri. This showing brought many buying orders for sma amounts. On the call of Traction 5's, 117% was bid, with none offered under 118. Rail-

Another instance of the poor condition of the outfield at the Thirteenth and D street grounds was plainly shown yesterday when Austin's one-base tap sneaked under a quantity of brush and allowed the runner to get to third. In almost every game played this season something of this nature has cropped out, and it is high time that the necessary action be taken by the league promoters.

Reform, of Brentwood, and Tansil, of Brookland, were the only players to connect for long drives. Both secured two-base hits.

Charley King, one of Washington's amateur fielding peers, covered first for Brookland yesterday. He handled his seems pursued by his old weakness at the bat.

President O'Shea has been more than pleased with the reception tendered the games at the Capital City Park by the sand lot fans. The action of the league promoters in throwing the gates open to the public all this week has created a very favorable impression, and there is little liklihood of the attendance falling off Monday when admission is charged.
